“Participatory in-situ conservation and sustainable use of agrobiodiversity in Hainan”

Dear Ms. Dinu,

This letter confirms our company’s cofinancing commitment for the UNDP supported, GEF financed project “Participatory in-situ conservation and sustainable use of agrobiodiversity in Hainan”, child project No.4 under the PRC-GEF Partnership Program on Sustainable Agricultural Development.

Our company is committed to conserve and sustainable use of Shanlan rice in Qiongzhong County, Hainan Province. We expect that our cumulative investments over the next five years 2019-2024 will be approximately USD 60 thousand (CNY416.4 thousand, at an exchange rate of 6.94), focused on conservation and sustainable use of Shanlan rice. We confirm that these investments can be considered as cofinancing for the proposed UNDP supported, GEF financed project. We are very interested in working together with the UNDP-GEF project on conserving of agriculture biodiversity.

We look forward to the commencement of the project.

Sincerely,

Zhaojun. Wang
