

THE MALAYSIA ENERGY EFFICIENCY & SOLAR THERMAL APPLICATION PROJECT

The MAEESTA is a national initiative supported by the Government of Malaysia, funded by the Global Environment Facility (GEF) and implemented by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO). This 5 year project (2014-2019) aims to promote and demonstrate energy efficiency (EE) improvement and solar thermal systems application in heating and cooling processes in targeted sub-sectors of Malaysian Industry.

