China: Endorsement Letter for GEF Enabling China to Prepare Its Second National Communication Project

This is to advise you that Ministry of Finance, as the GEF Focal Point of China, would like to endorse the captioned project proposal to be submitted by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) for GEF support.

The main objective of the PDF-B project is to prepare a complete project document of Enabling China to Prepare Its Second National Communication. This work is based on the findings and recommendations of the evaluation of "the Initial National Communication on Climate Change of the People's Republic of China", the understanding of Guidelines for the Preparation of Initial National Communications by Parties not Included in Annex I to the Convention as well as the current climate change activities in China.

We are looking forward to fruitful cooperation with UNDP on this project.

Best regards
