Strategic Alignment	4. Is the project aligned with the focal area/multifocal areas/ LDCF/SCCF/NPIF results framework and strategic objectives? For BD projects: Has the project explicitly articulated which Aichi Target(s) the project will help achieve and are SMART indicators identified, that will be used to track progress toward achieving the Aichi target(s).	Yes, Components 1, 2, and 3 are well-aligned with LDCF strategic objectives CCA-1 and CCA-3: reducing vulnerability and transfer of technology for adaptation.
	5. Is the project consistent with the recipient country's national strategies and plans or reports and assessments under relevant conventions, including NPFE, NAPA, NCSA, NBSAP or NAP?	Yes, water is a top priority in the NAPA, the project emphasizes water management for agriculture, and it also complements a related GEF-funded project on agriculture, which is the top most priority in Madagascar's NAPA.
Project Design	6. Is (are) the baseline project(s), including problem(s) that the baseline project(s) seek/s to address, sufficiently described and based on sound data and assumptions?	Yes, for this stage. The baseline project aims to improve agricultural production and farmers' incomes through water management in four sites of southwest Madagascar, each of which corresponds to a watershed. This will be done through an agriculture rehabilitation component, whose objective is to improve food security and increase productivity, access to market and services, as well as a component to support the establishment of sustainable agricultural infrastructure management by the beneficiaries, including technical assistance, institutional support, and awareness campaign against HIV/AIDS and water-related diseases. However, the size of the baseline project is unclear in the proposal.

		Recommended Action: By CEO Endorsement, it is expected that additional details on the baseline project will be available.
	7. Are the components, outcomes and outputs in the project framework (Table B) clear, sound and appropriately detailed?	Yes, the project framework is sound, and the project appears to be well-designed. It will focus on making agricultural water infrastructure climate resilient, to prevent flooding, facilitate irrigation, and employ strategies for agro-forestry and erosion control. The project will also focus on strengthening community livelihoods.
	8. (a) Are global environmental/adaptation benefits identified? (b) Is the description of the incremental/additional reasoning sound and appropriate?	Yes, there is a good description of additional benefits, with respect to infrastructure investments, community livelihoods, and finally, knowledge management which will be used to ensure that lessons learned from the implementation of this project are available for application to other adaptation projects.
	9. Is there a clear description of: a) the socio-economic benefits , including gender dimensions, to be delivered by the project, and b) how will the delivery of such benefits support the achievement of incremental/ additional benefits?
	10. Is the role of public participation, including CSOs, and indigenous peoples where relevant, identified and explicit means for their engagement explained?	Yes. The project has emerged as a result of consultations with the key institutions, and further consultations will be conducted during the project preparation phase.
	11. Does the project take into account potential major risks, including the consequences of climate change, and describes sufficient risk mitigation measures? (e.g., measures to enhance climate resilience)	Yes, the main risks and mitigation measures are identified. While the government body responsible for financing the maintenance of large-scale irrigation schemes may not be able to mobilize the necessary fund for maintenance of the infrastructure. AfDB

		government to allocate sufficient resources to FERHA, particularly in the southwest of the country where the project is located. Recommended Action: By CEO Endorsement it is expected that full details on the status of this risk will be updated.
	12. Is the project consistent and properly coordinated with other related initiatives in the country or in the region?	Yes. For the most part, the project appears consistent and properly coordinated with other related initiatives in Madagascar. Key development partners financing irrigation and agricultural development projects include UNDP, FAO, AFD, GIZ and the World Bank. During AfDB's inception mission links were forged with these relevant partners, and an ongoing dialogue is taking place regarding synergies and complementarities through the ongoing national program in irrigation and catchment protection. Recommended action: By CEO Endorsement, it would be important to demonstrate a project that is fully coordinated with other related initiatives, exploring synergies where possible.
	13. Comment on the project's innovative aspects, sustainability, and potential for scaling up. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assess whether the project is innovative and if so, how, and if not, why not. Assess the project's strategy for sustainability, and the likelihood of achieving this 	Yes. The project focuses on essential institutional capacity building (component two), the establishment of sustainable agricultural infrastructure management by the beneficiaries, while focusing on strengthening Water Users Associations; technical assistance to farmers for agricultural development, institutional support to the relevant national bodies working on anti-locust

	based on GEF and Agency experience. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assess the potential for scaling up the project's intervention. 	for farmers; and the implementation of sensitization and awareness campaign against HIV/AIDS and diseases related to water.
